CROSSCARE CHRISTMAS APPEAL

This Christmas, no family should have to worry about putting food on the table. Crosscare's Christmas Food Poverty Appeal 2026 comes as demand for its services grows. By the end of this year, Crosscare expects to have supported more than 2,400 people, including almost 1,800 children, through its Food & Support services. Crosscare provides more than food, offering practical advice and ongoing support to help families overcome financial hardship and build a more secure future.

Your generosity this Christmas can make a lasting difference to those struggling to afford the most basic essentials. Every donation large or small, matters. Please give what you can at www.crosscare.ie or call 01 8360011.

The Friendship Club Coolock – Mobile Information Unit

Friendship Club Coolock
Marie Keating FOUNDATION

The Friendship Club Coolock will host the Marie Keating Foundation Mobile Information Unit on Wednesday, 2nd December, from 11.30am to 1pm. The mobile unit will be located at Kilbarron Court, DCC Complex Kilbarron Road, beside St Luke's Church, Kilmore West.
Everyone is welcome to drop in, enjoy a cup of tea or coffee and learn more about cancer support, information and prevention. Tea and coffee will be provided, and donations are kindly accepted. Stay informed – it could save a life!
